A Majority in "Mop."

There was never any reasonable doubt, after George Gould made plain is intentions that Kuhn, Loeb & Co.'s proxy committee would get all the votes it needed to dominate the Missouri Facific board. But actual announcement yesterday that the votes were in hand was not allowed to escape celebration. Such orders are under suspicion, and quite a number have been cut in two by mill agents because they feit certain the quantities bespoken would not be accepted by the purchasers. The large clothing manufacturers have operated conservatively, and the mills are confident the commitments made by these factors will stick.
